Longview Chamber Executive Named to W.A.C.E. Emerging Leaders Advisory Council

Lisa Morgan, Business/Office Manager of the Longview Chamber of Commerce, was among the 15 chamber executives to recently be named as new members to the Western Association of Chamber Executives Advisory Council last week at its annual conference in Los Angeles, California.

The Council was formed to identify & recognize future leaders (all under 40) in W.A.C.E. and the chamber of commerce industry.

Members of the Council will be asked to provide program feedback and ideas for the good of W.A.C.E. and will serve as advisors to the association's Board and President.

"I am excited and honored to be selected as an Emerging Leader with W.A.C.E. The Academy program really contributed to my professional development," said Lisa Morgan.

W.A.C.E. is an association of chamber of commerce executives and staff professionals with members in 17 Western states and Canada designed to promote and enhance the professional development of chamber of commerce executives. With approximately 830 members, W.A.C.E. is the largest state or regional association of chamber of commerce executives in the United States.
